Five Years for Anarchists, MacQueen and Grossman Smile Carelessly as They Receive Their Sentences.

PATERSON, Oct. 31.—William MacQueen and Rudolph Grossman, the Anarchists, were sentenced this morning to five years each in State prison by Judge Scott in the Court of Quarter Sessions for riot and malicious mischief. There were two indictments for atrocious assault and battery which were not moved for trial by Prosecutor Emley, as official concluded he had run enough convictions up against the two reds to give the court ample scope in sentencing them. The maximum penalty under the conviction was twelve years in prison and $4,000 fine.

MacQueen and Grossman smiled carelessly as the court pronounced sentence on them. They turned to their counsel and asked him for a written sentence, all in time. Mr. Ward, their counsel, took an appeal at once and the two men were released on giving $6,500 bail each. It will probably be a year before the appeal is decided.

STABBED FOR HALLOWEEN FUN.

Roy Hit Man With Flour-Filled Stocking and Was Cut in the Neck.

Joseph Demaro, 30 years old, of 182 Prospect street, Brooklyn, was arrested last night at Jay and Sands street, charged with stabbing in the back of the neck Joseph O'Toole, 14 years old, of 288 Pacific street. O'Toole, with a number of boys of his own age, was celebrating All Hallowe'en in the approved boisterous fashion of the day, when he was hit in the back by a flour-filled stocking. Demaro was a victim of the lad's innocent fun. After hitting Demaro the boy turned and ran, pursued by the enraged man. With one blow Demaro drove the knife through the fleshy part of the boy's neck.

O'Toole was removed to the Brooklyn Hospital by Ambulance Surgeon Smith. Demaro will be arraigned in the Adams street court to-day.

A WATCH FOR THE CROWN PRINCE.

Also One for His Brother, and a Lady's Gold Watch Thrown In.

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—The Crown Prince of Spain, his brother and the other members of his party spent to-day in Waltham and Lynn. In Waltham he was the guest of the American Waltham Watch Company, and in Lynn he was the guest of the General Electric Company and the Little Shoe Company.

At the watch factory the different stages in the making of a watch were shown, and the Prince and those with him were amazed.

In substance President Butler said that the most significant moment is that it's work to teach to touch the youth to be institutionals or believers in law, order and the established institutions.

"We do our lives to education," said President Butler, "and whose privilege it is to keep it going, must teach our boys and girls to use the armor of institutions and understand the significance of true independence."

This evening the party went to see William Gillette.

N. M. BUTLER IN BROOKLYN.

Institutional, He Says, Should Be Taught to Boys and Girls.

President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University made an address last night in the Girls' High School, Brooklyn, before the Teachers' Association on "The New Significance of Education." It was his first public address since he became the successor of Seth Low.

In substance President Butler said that the most significant moment is that it's work to teach to touch the youth to be institutionals or believers in law, order and the established institutions.

"We do our lives to education," said President Butler, "and whose privilege it is to keep it going, must teach our boys and girls to use the armor of institutions and understand the significance of true independence."

FIGHT THE WOMAN DETECTIVE.

Tuss in the Street in Front of a Broad-Way Department Store.

Mrs. Jennie O'Connor, a detective employed by Broadway department store, had a tussle with a man she accused of being a shoplifter yesterday afternoon, but landed her prisoner. Mrs. O'Connor saw the man go up to the jewelry counter, she says, and examine some watchchains, then slipped a chain into his pocket and she followed him to the street.

When she told him he was under arrest he put up a fight. She is a strong woman and they wrestled in the street until Detective George F. T. Henderson, station captain charge of her prisoner, came.

He said he was Charles Bernstein of 804 Flushing avenue, Brooklyn. He was recommended for examination in the Jefferson Market police court.
